On the 30th of September 2018, officers of the Gananoque Police Service conducted a traffic stop of a male known to them to be a habitual suspended driver. During the traffic stop the male was again found to be suspended, the licence plates on the car were not attached to the proper vehicle, the validation sticker was expired, and he was found to have no insurance. As a result, the licence plates were seized and the vehicle was towed. The male received two Part 1 Provincial Offences Notices as well as two Part III Summons to appear in Court at a later date.
