MEDIA RELEASE

On August 11, 2019 The Gananoque Police Service commenced an investigation regarding a male that had committed an indecent act by masturbating and exposing himself in a public place. Police were contacted approx. 1 hour after the incident was observed, and the male was not located the night of the incident.

Further in the early morning hours of August 15, 2019 The Gananoque Police Service received a report of a male who was masturbating within a public place at an east end business. Officers located the male whose genitalia was covered by his sweater but fully exposed from his pants upon officer's arrival. The male was arrested and taken into custody. As a result of several linking characteristics the male was identified as being the male from the August 11th incident.

As a result, the 21 year old male from Gananoque was charged with Indecent Act X 2, Fail to Comply Probation, Fail to Comply Officer In Charge Undertaking. The male is held in custody pending a bail hearing.
