Gananoque Police receive a call from a complainant advising her adult son had just been assaulted by an unknown male. Officers attend the scene and are advised that the 51-year-old male victim was approached by a group who then began yelling and swearing at him. A male in the group threw a canned drink at the victim, striking him in the face. The victim retreated to his residence nearby where the group followed him and continued to berate him in front of his family. During this altercation, the victim's mailbox was also damaged.

Officers were soon after able to locate the group, who initially tried to evade police, but the 18-year-old Gananoque male accused of throwing the can was located and arrested. He was charged with Assault with a Weapon and Fail to Comply with his Probation Order. The male was released on conditions to appear in court at a later date.
