MEDIA RELEASE

Gananoque Police are continuing to investigate a disturbing incident that occurred over night on January 29th where animal remains were discovered outside a local residence. Police have conducted extensive neighbourhood inquiries and are still seeking any information which would lead to identification of suspect(s) and/or a motive for the criminal offence.

Police have since obtained an expert opinion and it has been confirmed that the remains are from a wild animal. As the investigation continues police are confident that this incident does not pose a risk to domestic pets/animals.

Anyone with information is asked to call Gananoque Police at 613-382-4509 or Crimestoppers at 1-800-222-8477(TIPS).
