March 22, 2021

In the early morning hours of March 22nd, 2021 officer while on routine patrol observed a suspicious vehicle exiting an east end business. The vehicles plate was not visible and a traffic stop was conducted. During the stop, it was determined that duct tape had been used to obscure the licence plate. A quantity of unopened product boxes belonging to the business were also observed in the rear of the vehicle.

As a result of the information obtained, the 37 year old male driver from Athens and the 32 year old male passenger from Brockville were both charged with Break & Enter, Mischief and Possession of Property Obtained by Crime. Both were released with multiple conditions and court dates in the near future. The investigation is ongoing.
