MEDIA RELEASE

On May 17th, 2019 Gananoque Police Service were called to a local business where a male had just left the store in possession of several unpaid items. Upon arrival, police were advised that the male was observed walking to an area nearby, before returning to another business. The male was located trying to flee the second business on his bicycle. When police approached him, he was observed discarding stolen merchandise as he fled. The male was arrested without incident and taken into custody.

A search of the nearby area turned up several items stolen from the first business.

As a result, the male was charged with Shoplifting offences, as well as breaching conditions of his Probation. He was and held in custody for a show cause hearing.
