The Gananoque Police received a complaint of a suspicious male who was attempting to trade tools that he had in his possession for a ride to Kingston. Shortly after receiving the initial complaint, a second complaint was received reporting a break in and theft of tools. Police were able to locate the male and link the tools he had in his possession back to the break and enter. As a result of the investigation, a 29-year-old Kingston man was charged with one count each of break and enter, theft under $5,000 and possession of property obtained by crime under $5,000. The male was released from custody and will appear in court at a later date.

Gananoque Police arrested a 76-year-old man from New York for Dangerous Operation of a Conveyance and Mischief under $5,000. The man attended at the Gananoque Police station and drove his vehicle through one of the garage doors located at the rear of the building. When questioned by police the man stated that he was homeless and wanted to go to jail. The man was charged accordingly and held in custody pending a bail hearing.
