October 10, 2021

The Gananoque Police received a call from an east end business regarding the theft of a bicycle. Information provided to police was that a witness was following the suspect in a vehicle eastbound out of town. Police located the suspect, who was still in possession of the bike. A 35-year-old Brockville woman was arrested and charged with one count each of theft under $5,000 and possession of stolen property under $5,000. The woman was released from custody and will appear in court at a later date.
