On October 25th, 2020, OPP located a male wanted by Gananoque Police for failing to comply with conditions of his release. The 29-year-old Gananoque male was originally arrested and charged in relation to several domestic violence charges, earlier in the month. He was held in custody by police and taken to court for a show cause hearing. He was soon after released from Court with numerous conditions. A warrant was sought after officers received information that the accused breached his conditions the day of his release. He was again held for a bail hearing.
